

“I Should Have Stayed Up” by Keith Harry
Press Release

“I Should Have Stayed Up” Keith Harry’s debut single from his debut album, “Between the Lines”. Released on September 17th, 2022, the song is an ode to his father, Lou, who tragically took his own life on September 17th, 2017. “I Should Have Stayed Up” is a letting out and letting go of the emotions and thoughts that Keith has been coping with and processing since his father’s death. The song also pays homage to the love that both Keith and his father Lou had for The Beatles by injecting the sounds and tendencies of The Beatles music. A portion of the proceeds from sales and streams of “I Should Have Stayed Up” will go to All Souls Counseling, in Asheville NC. “I Should Have Stayed Up” is out on all major streaming platforms. Learn more about Keith, the single and full album at www.harrycareycreations.com. Learn more about All Souls Counseling at www.allsouls counseling.org.